February 1, 2015                                      Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saint Edna Catholic Community desires to live as a reflection of who Christ calls us to be by welcoming all in Charity, Justice, and Hope

Come, let us sing joyfully to the Lord; let us acclaim the rock of our salvation. Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us joyfully sing psalms to him.

Psalm 95:1-2
This Tuesday, February 3rd, is the Feast of St. Blaise. Legend tells us that Blaise was a doctor as well as a bishop. He was said to have healed a boy who was choking on a fish bone. Because of this event, Blaise has been and continues to be the patron saint of people who suffer from illnesses of the throat.

Traditionally, on this day in many parishes, people have their throats blessed. The candles used in this blessing are traditionally blessed on Candlemas Day (the day before) and are tied in the shape of a cross and then touched to people’s necks. This day falls in the middle of the “flu season” and is a good reminder that we need to visit the sick and pay extra attention to anyone who is prone to illness during the winter. We will be keeping this tradition by blessing throats at the 6:45am Communion Service and the 8:00am morning Mass this Tuesday. Please join us if you are able.

Last week, parishes throughout our Archdiocese with Catholic Schools celebrated Catholic Schools Week. This week is an opportunity for parishes to showcase the many benefits, advantages and opportunities a Catholic education provides. Having served most of my priesthood in parishes with Catholic Schools and being a product of a Catholic School education myself, I am a strong advocate for Catholic Schools. Though we here at St. Edna do not have a grammar school, I feel strongly enough about the benefits of a solid Catholic education that we welcomed St. James School representatives to our parish last weekend.

As a Catholic parent, one of the most important decisions in your life and in the lives of your children is choosing the education that will most benefit them. I ask you to consider the following reasons why a Catholic school would be right for your children. Catholic schools:

- have a proven record of academic excellence;
- work closely with you for the good of your children;
- continue the religious formation of your children begun in your home;
- have clear and precise goals;
- provide a challenging and affirming atmosphere;
- maintain a secure environment;
- have educators who believe that all children can succeed.

We are so fortunate to have schools in our neighboring parishes that have received the prestigious “Blue Ribbon” status such as St. Marys in Buffalo Grove and St. James in Arlington Heights. It might be worth your while to check out all the great things that are happening in the lives of those who are attending our neighboring Catholic Schools.
FESTIVAL OF FORGIVENESS

Pope Francis has described his vision of the Church as a field hospital in the middle of a terribly wounded world. The Church herself is populated by wounded and sinful members, but by God’s grace she still serves as an instrument of healing and forgiveness.

During Lent 2015, the Church of the Archdiocese of Chicago wants to bring the medicine of mercy not only to the Catholic faithful but also to anyone who stands in need of healing and forgiveness.

Second Weekend in Lent

Across two days (Friday, February 27 and Saturday, February 28), the Church in Chicago will offer special opportunities for the celebration of the Sacrament of Penance and for prayers of healing. The Catholic faithful, especially those who have been away from the sacraments, are urgently invited to come and share in God’s mercy. That second weekend of Lent, Paul’s letter to the Romans will be read at every Mass. And we, the Church, will proclaim and embrace his words: “If God is for us, who can be against us?” (Romans 8:11)

Everyone is Invited

Every human being lives with elements of brokenness. Every human soul knows its fragility. In Chicago, we are more aware than ever of the wounds inflicted on our city and its people by violence, gangs, drugs, domestic abuse, child neglect, economic injustice, and a spirit of mistrust among people of different races, cultures, languages, and ways of life. The city begs for the mercy of God and for healing. The Catholic Church in Chicago wants to be a field hospital where all people can find the medicine of God’s mercy.

For 24 hours straight from 12:00 Noon on Friday, Feb. 27th through 12:00 Noon on Saturday, Feb. 28th the Sacrament of Reconciliation/Penance will be offered and available at Queen of the Rosary Parish located at 750 W. Elk Grove Blvd., Elk Grove Village, 60007. (847) 437-0403.

***************

Finally, just a reminder that our daily Mass time changes this coming week. Morning Mass will now be at 8:00 a.m. instead of 9:00 a.m. There will also be no Morning Mass offered on Fridays and Saturdays beginning this week, however, every Friday at 8:00am. Morning Prayer will be prayed with a Communion Service to follow. In addition, confessions will now be heard on the 1st and the 3rd Saturdays of the month at the new time of 8:00am until 9:00am. Adoration and will also be offered on the First Friday of each month beginning at 8:30am, after Morning Prayer and the Communion Service, and will conclude with Benediction at 9:30am. If you attend any of these Masses/Services, please make a note of these changes.

May God bless you and watch over us,

Fr. Rich

We will try our best to publish everyone’s stories, but we simply might not have time to publish all of them in the bulletin. However, all of the stories will be on the 50th Anniversary web page, where everyone will be able to see them.

For more information, please contact Christine Desmond. Thank you!
A Message from the Building Committee

Greeting Parishioners,

It has been a while since we communicated the latest information on the New Building (Our Parish Center) and the associated renovations and plans. The Archdiocese moratorium on bridge loans made us put a hold on the construction. So since we had the opportunity, and since Fr. Rich brought some fresh energy to the project, we have taken this time to step back and see if we are headed in the right direction. To that end, we have come up with a plan of action:

The Committee reviewed drawings of both sets of plans (pre-Value Engineering and post-Value Engineering). With the greater future needs of the parish in mind, the following items will be included in the new proposal:

1) The general meeting area, backstage area and prayer chapel be as originally proposed (i.e. enlarged building space).
2) The roof be flat as shown on the reduced cost plan.
3) The kitchen area be located and designed as shown on the reduced cost plan.
4) The outdoor gathering space and courtyard be as originally proposed.
5) The main entrance be as originally proposed, at the south end of the gathering space.
6) The (higher level) tera-flex flooring in the gym to be considered.
7) Use the interior finishing proposed for the reduced cost plan in the hallway.
8) Use the modifications to the mechanicals ductwork as originally proposed.
9) Use precast concrete walls as shown in the reduced cost plan.
10) The increased parking area for 75 new spots to be considered.

With respect to electrical, the rapid improvements related to LED lighting were recognized. It is anticipated significant adjustments will be made to the electrical design when the final proposal is completed. The ten items noted are not all inclusive of the items discussed, but do address the significant components.

The committee recommended Susan Maish of JNKA be contacted and invited to the next meeting to discuss the future goals and timing. It is anticipated JNKA would prepare a new set of drawings reflecting the modifications plus the prayer chapel as discussed during the meeting. These plans would also include the renovations of the Hurley Center Basement and the Doherty Center. When JNKA makes new drawings & presentation boards, these would be used to update the Parish of the new plan and to obtain bids for the proposed construction.

We are excited to see this get off the ground!

If you have any questions,
please call Mike Maloni and The Building Committee
via the Parish Office at 847-398-3362

God Bless!
Please Support the 2015 Annual Catholic Appeal

“Entrusted with Responsibility”

Please spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal brochure that you will receive with your bulletin. Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

As you review the work enabled by your contribution to the Annual Catholic Appeal, please reflect on God’s gifts to you. He has given you all that you have. With these gifts, you are entrusted with responsibility. Your gifts to St. Edna Parish, to the Archdiocese and to the work of the Church throughout the world should be given in gratitude for the continuing gifts that God gives you.

Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services. Our combined gifts not only signify our gratitude to God, they fund a significant portion of the work of our Archdiocese.

After our parish goal of $94,971.12 is reached, 100% of any additional funds come back to our parish to help fund our needs.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back or bring it to Mass next weekend. For those of you who did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond to it, we will conduct our in-pew pledge process at all Masses next weekend.
In the midst of miracles and cures and deep understanding of people, Jesus may sometimes seem distant from us. The readings on this Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, however, emphasize His humanity; He was one of the people, someone who each of us could relate to not as a God, but a man. However, it can be a bit overwhelming for us to accept Jesus in the way He wants us to.

That does not mean we do not acknowledge His divinity, but we also must view Him as a companion on our own life’s journey. In a sense, this is what stewardship calls us to — walking with the Lord and leaning on Him when we must, and certainly finding strength in His presence. But to have Him present in our lives requires us to make an effort to make that happen.

In the first reading from Deuteronomy, Moses declares, “A prophet like me will the Lord, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen.” Throughout Advent and the Christmas season we prepared for the arrival of Jesus. Now as we approach Lent and Easter it is time for us to listen to Him. The late Archbishop Fulton Sheen said, “One of the best ways to get happiness and pleasure out of life is to ask ourselves, ‘How can I please God?’”

Stewardship Council strives to inspire our community to express gratitude for God’s many gifts through service to God and one another.
At this time, the Prayer Shawl Ministry is in need of more yarn! How can YOU help??

Blessing of Expectant Parents

On Sunday, February 15 at the close of the 9:30am Mass, Father Yanos will give a blessing to all expectant parents. Please be seated in the center aisle towards the front.

The members of Respect Life welcome them, and gift bags will be distributed to all expectant parents following the blessing.

Please RSVP if you plan to attend by calling the Parish Office at 847-398-3362

More information on Respect Life Ministry can be viewed at www.stedna.org/respectlifeministry

In the twenty-fifth chapter of St. Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus tells his followers how mankind will be separated at the Final Judgment. To the righteous, Jesus will say, “Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.”

We don’t often think about those in prison, and when we do, we usually think of them as “bad people” who deserve their punishment. But Christian teaching tells us that there are no bad people, only good people who do bad things. We are all sinners. No matter how great a person may sin, no one is ever beyond redemption. In one of the last acts of his earthly life, Christ forgave the thief crucified beside him, saying, “Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.” As Christians, we are called to follow Christ’s words and example by reaching out to those in prison in the spirit of love and forgiveness.

To learn how to get involved, please contact the St. Edna Prison Ministry Team at stednaprisonministry@gmail.com
To Those Who Are Grieving The Loss of A Loved One:

A year ago on January 8, I lost my dear brother, Brother Tom Minta, very suddenly. Tom came to live with me and get me through the loss of my dear husband Ed after he died suddenly in May of 2007. Tom lived with me for the past seven years and our life together was wonderful. Always being very close siblings, losing him was an enormous loss for me, and I just couldn’t see myself going through this again.

When Fr. Jerry told me that Diane Mulroe, our Director of Human Concerns and head of the Bereavement Ministry here at St. Edna, was starting a new grief support group and it would be helpful for me to join, I told him I wasn’t interested. I just didn’t think there would be anything they could do for me to make my life easier through this very difficult time. However, things got so desperate for me trying to go on with my life that I was willing to try anything. My faith in Jesus is always with me, and somehow I felt Him guiding me in this direction. I can only tell you how happy I am to this day that I made the right decision and joined the group. It felt so comforting to be with people who were experiencing the same things I was going through the grief process. We became so close, it was like we were a family joined together, sharing our thoughts, feelings, and fears. We cried together, comforted each other, and even had some laughs together.

The wonderful leaders of this group, Diane and Linda, couldn’t have been more perfect in the part they played. With their experience, knowledge and unselfish love, they guided us and helped us through our grieving along with the companion books they provided for us. At the end of the ten weeks, I felt the strength and peace that I needed to help me face the new challenges of my life. There were eight of us in this group, and we became so close that we still continue to get together for lunch each month. It is so good to see how far we all have come and all are so thankful to Diane and Linda for their input in our healing. I can only tell you of my experience, but would assure you that if you are facing a challenging time now going through the grief process, please take advantage of the Grief Support Group to help you find the hope, strength, courage and healing you need.

Love, Carole

"Pray for Our Sick"

As members of St. Edna’s parish faith community, it is our responsibility to remember both in concrete and spiritual ways those who cannot celebrate mass with us each week because they are ill. Those who are sick, in turn, remember all of us daily in their prayers and in their sufferings. We experience many blessings because of their remembering us. And so, please remember in your prayers the people listed on the “Pray for Our Sick”.

If your name or a loved one’s name is not listed but you would like it to be, please contact me via email or phone. Alternatively, if your name is listed but no longer needs to be on the list, please let me know. Due to the privacy law only names that have been given to us from an immediate family member with the permission of the person requesting prayers will be printed. It is always a privilege to support you in any way possible.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
This treasure is for everyone
We believe that Jesus’ teaching authority, which astonished his hearers, continues through apostolic succession to each new generation of believers. As Catholic writer Alice Camille put it, “I know that there’s little in my life of faith that doesn’t come to me directly or indirectly as a result of 20 centuries of magisterial collaboration between the church’s leadership and faithful membership.” The deposit of faith is our treasure. Let’s not bury it.
TODAY’S READINGS: Deuteronomy 18:15-20; 1 Corinthians 7:32-35; Mark 1:21-28

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2
FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD; WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE
Tamales, anyone?
You may think the holiday season ended weeks ago but, at least in Mexico, one more exclamation point is added to the season today. Back on January 6, Feast of the Epiphany—known in Mexico as Día de los Reyes or “Three Kings Day”—Mexicans cut into cakes shaped like crowns. Small replicas of the infant child are baked into the cakes and those who receive a cut of cake with a baby Jesus are tasked with providing tamales and a corn-based drink called atole for a party today in honor of his presentation at the temple. Join the tamale tradition and offer one last farewell to the joyous season. You can also raise a toast today to World Day for Consecrated Life.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3
FEAST OF BLAISE, BISHOP, MARTYR
Protect creatures great and small
This saint’s reputation is based on the story of his healing a boy choking on a fish bone. But Blaise also healed animals. Legend has it that wild animals came to him for his blessing. Catholics share a responsibility as stewards of creation, including for animals wild and domesticated. To celebrate today, after having your throat blessed, find out how you might support efforts to protect wildlife where you live. Remember that even a bird feeder can help God’s creatures survive a bitter winter.
TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 12:1-4; Mark 5:21-43

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4
My other friend is a tree
Joyce Kilmer taught many of us to see the poetry in trees. Robert Frost famously invited us to be “swingers of birches,” enjoying the same patient flexibility of tree branches bowing under a child’s weight. Old-growth redwoods and sequoias dwarf our human lifetimes by a millennium. A tree on your street may mark each season more accurately than any calendar. And who doesn’t love the year’s most celebrated tree, O Tannenbaum? Today is the Jewish “New Year for Trees,” Tu B’Shvat. Respect forests. Support the town green. Plant a tree.
TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 12:4-7, 11-15; Mark 6:1-6

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5
FEAST OF AGATHA, VIRGIN, MARTYR
Be a witness to freedom from trafficking
When facing challenges, we can turn to the saints for help. The church raises up women and men who are in solidarity with us, including saints who have experienced some of the same horrors that people today do. As we fight for people enslaved by human trafficking, we can look to saints like Saint Agatha who knew personally the violence of sexual assault. We can also look to saints among us, such as Catholic sisters and others who are leaders in the struggle against human trafficking. Check out BakhitaInitiative.com and see how you can join the saints and end human trafficking.
TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 12:18-19, 21-24; Mark 6:7-13

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6
FEAST OF PAUL MIKI, PRIEST, MARTYR, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS
Let goodness rain
Brother Paul Miki, a Jesuit and a native of Japan, is the best known among the 26 martyrs who died in Japan in 1597. As he died on a hill in Nagasaki he said, “After Christ’s example I forgive my persecutors. I do not hate them. I ask God to have pity on all, and I hope my blood will fall on my fellow men as a fruitful rain.” Indeed it did. Centuries later, missionaries returned to Japan to find thousands of Christians who had quietly preserved the faith underground until it was legalized. Let your life’s work also be a fruitful rain, nourishing all with whom you come into contact.
TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 13:1-8; Mark 6:14-29

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7
Slow down, you’re moving too fast
Jesus would regularly withdraw from active ministry in order to be by himself in prayer. Jesus taking time off? Yes! This is one way in which ordinary people might imitate an important facet of Jesus’ spirituality: the choice to slow down, to become quiet and still, and in such moments—brief as they may be—to bask in the presence of God’s Spirit, which is always within to strengthen you. Jesus learned it from his mother, who is often remembered as “holding things in her heart”—contemplating, learning, deepening love.
TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 13:15-17, 20-21; Mark 6:30-34
Children’s Stewardship Corner

January 25, 2015

Gabriel, Michael, Kate, and Matt gave thanks to God for the blessings in their life by:

- I say my prayers every night.
- I helped clean.
- I made my grandma a birthday card.

In addition to their good deeds, the children donated $7.00 to Saint Edna Parish. May God continue to bless each of you!

I feel good when I thank God!
